TENANT SPOTLIGHT

ProTox Services

A Q & A with Cathy Kammerer, account executive

Tell us about your business.

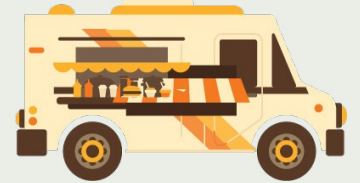

We are a women-owned small business. For more than 25 years, Professional Toxicology Services, Inc. has provided collection sites, laboratories, Medical Review Officers, Third Party Administrators and government agencies with products and services that keep them in compliance with state and federal drug testing regulations. Our director is a chemist with a Ph.D. who has more than 40 years of experience in the field.

What should potential customers know about your company?

We're a certified Department of Transportation (DOT) collection site and a certified Breath Alcohol testing site. We provide rapid point-of-care drug screening and quality controls for on-site drug testing instruments. We provide blind quality controls for DOT and Health and Human Services (HHS) clients.

What would surprise people about your company?

One of our sources of income is driven by urine.
