California Closets

A Q & A with Ashley Travers, Design Consultant

Tell us about California Closets.

Since 1989, California Closets Kansas City has led custom home-storage solutions. It's locally owned and operated with a team of 15 designers, fabricators and installers.

What should potential customers know about rethinking their closet?

When rethinking your closet or any space in your home that you want to redo, imagine it completely empty and get rid of your preconceived ideas about the space. Sometimes it's as simple as using the height in a room to maximize the space, and other times it's reconfiguring the whole space to get better utilization.

What would surprise people about California Closets?

California Closets isn't just closets!

We really offer custom solutions for any space you can think of from media centers to libraries to commercial office spaces, and even walls and pantries. The opportunities to collaborate for the best possible outcome are endless!
